DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's request for reconsideration, filed on February 3, 2003, has been considered and entered.
2. No claims have been added or amended. Claims 1-12 are presented for examination.

Response to Reconsideration

3. Applicant's submission of references on form PTO-1449 has been considered. A signed copy of the form is attached.
4. The rejection of claims 1-12 under 35 USC §102(e) as being anticipated by Doran, et al. (USPN 6,301,517) is maintained.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments filed February 3, 2003 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The claim language of the instant invention does not support the arguments made by the applicant. The reference of prior art to Doran, et al. substantially teaches the limitations of the instant invention as claimed. Applicant is arguing a feature of the invention not specifically stated in the claim language, which is improper. Claimed subject matter, not the specification, is the measure of invention. Limitations in the specification cannot be read into the claims for the purpose of avoiding the prior art. In re Self, 213 USPQ 1, 5 (CCPA 1982); In re Priest, 199 USPQ 11, 15 (CCPA 1978). For this reason, the rejection of claims 1-12 is maintained as stated above.

Conclusion

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
